

HAVE A GOOD SPRING
VACATION

The Idaho

VOLUME XXXVI

THE IDAHO ARGONAUT, MOSCOW,

Ernest Lindley To Be Commencement Speaker

Washington Correspondent Is First Idaho Graduate To Deliver Graduation Address Here

To Ernest K. Lindley, a graduate of the University of Idaho in the class of 1920 and now Washington correspondent for the New York Herald-Tribune and prominent political analyst, goes the honor of being the first Idaho graduate to return to his alma mater as commencement speaker. Mr. Lindley has accepted the invitation extended by President M. G. Neale to deliver the address at the university's fortieth commencement this spring.

While a student in college, Lindley was outstanding both in scholarship and athletics. He was the university's eleventh Rhodes scholar and also a member of an Idaho Northwest championship basketball team. Immediately upon graduation from Oxford university in 1923 he returned to the United States and entered a career in journalism, starting as a reporter on the Wichita, Kansas, Beacon in 1924. After a short time on this paper he joined the New York World staff as a political writer and Albany correspondent, a position he held until 1931. He has been a political writer for the New York Herald-Tribune since 1931 and Washington correspondent for this paper since 1933.

Speaks to Presidents

At Washington, D. C. last November President Neale enjoyed the pleasant experience of hearing Mr. Lindley deliver the principal address at the annual banquet of the American Association of Presidents of State Universities. "His address on President Roosevelt, his political philosophy and his program, was a classic," Dr. Neale declared. In addition to being a forceful speaker Mr. Lindley is well known for his political writings. His book, "Franklin D. Roosevelt—A Career in Progressive Democracy," was one of the first of the "New Deal" publications. Last year his second book, "The Roosevelt Revolution—The First Phase" attracted widespread attention. He is a regular contributor to a num-

CAMPUS ORCHESTRA WILL BROADCAST

This evening over radio station KWSC, Pullman, Dick Paris will be heard at the piano with his six-piece orchestra, the Paris Knights. The orchestra will furnish a half-hour of popular dance music from 5:30 to 6 p. m.

Dick is a freshman and his orchestra, which was organized just after Christmas, has already met with great success on both the Moscow and Pullman campuses.

The broadcast will feature the singing of Paul Rust, prominent in Idaho musical activities.

Mexican Drama Is Well Presented

"Night Over Taos," Enthusiastically Received By Student Playgoers

By Marian Willsey

The condemning cry, "Pablo! Pablo Montoya! Your son!" has re-echoed in the minds of university playgoers since the excellent presentation of Maxwell Anderson's "Night Over Taos," last Friday and Saturday nights.

Believing the ASUI capable of appreciating other than comedy, Director Fred Blanchard has been more than justified in this hope by the enthusiastic reception accorded the serious melodrama of his choice.

Utah Aggies Debate Here on Munitions Question

In a non-decision debate last night in Administration 207, Lewis Orland and Cecil Great-house upheld the negative against Raleigh Barlowe and Conley Thomas of the Utah State Agricultural college on the question Resolved: "That the nations should agree to prevent international shipment of arms and munitions."

The Utah team is on a tour debating this question. They have already debated the Northwest Nazarene college and Washington State college and will include Gonzaga and University of Montana in their tour.

A Cappella Choir Sings Tonight

Boise High School Music Organization To Perform in Auditorium

The Boise high school a cappella choir, under the direction of Donald Foltz, will appear this evening in the university auditorium.

While in Boise, Prof. Carleton Cummings, head of the university music department, attended a rehearsal of this organization and said that it was a very fine group and would be well worth hearing.

The following is the program which will be presented:

O bone JesuPalestrina
Tenebrae factae suntPalestrina
Break Forth, O Beauteous Heavenly LightBach
Jesu, Priceless TreasureBach

Intermission

Cherubim Song, No. 7 Bortniansky
Hospodi PomiluiLvovsky
Emitte Spirituum tuum Schuetky
The Shepherd's StoryDickinson
Kenneth Garvin, Gordon Eichmann, Ruth McBirney, Soloists

Intermission INFORMAL GROUP

When Allan-a-Dale Went a-Huntingde Pearsall
The Silver SwanGibbons
Now Is the Month of MayingMorley
NinaRussian-Krone
Intermission
Let Us Cheer the Weary Traveler
Dett

Eight Are In Tournament Delta Tau

All Remaining ants Meet in als Monday

Faculty T Scheduled to Finalists

Delta Tau Delta I
naut bridge tournament
match points. T. M.
in last night's play
and jumped to see their division. The teams selected from night's play are: De
T. M. A., Phi Gam
Alpha Chi Omega.

In the other di
Sigma leads with 6
three remaining te
Tau Omega, Gamma
Kappa Kappa Gam

The eight teams will meet 7 o'clock
ning in the Blue
these eight teams
be selected to play
teams from facult
people. Previous s be counted.

Dick Burke and M
playing for T. M.
third in previous first last night by ding and playing.
slam was bid and
Chi. Delta Chi and able to squeeze ou
in no trump at
The other tables s
hearts on the sam
bers of the Sigma unable to play so
nament directors
them. Aggregate four high teams an
First Group

Kappa Sigma
Alpha Tau Ome
Gamma Phi Be Kappa Kappa C
Second Group
Delta Tau Delta
T. M. A.
Phi Gamma De
Alpha Chi Ome